Memorable moments:

- I volunteered for service and went to Honiton where we took tests, written and mathematical. Presumably the results of these were taken into consideration as to which trade we were allocated.
- We were billeted in both Nissen and wooden huts, also under canvas at Romney Marsh which we quite enjoyed, except in wet weather as all conveniences were across the field.
- Other memorable times:
  - Edinburgh – Singsongs in the NAAFI, Guard Duties.
  - Stockton – Darts team, dances.
  - Whitby – 199 steps most days, cobble streets.
  - Romney Marsh – washing outside in cold water, Doodle bugs.
  - Upnor – parties, pubs, meeting my future husband.
  - V.E. and V.J. days
  - St Leonards – losing ourselves in the building, watching the sea, booking my brother on to the ship from India for home.
  - Being transferred to the Records Office, awaiting demobilisation.
